On Spam, Business Proposals is a series of interventions/photographs for which Niels Post collects sentences from business proposals that are being emailed to him (spam) and that he has plotted out as vinyl adhesive letters. With those sentences he looks for vacant commercial windows (shops, offices). Once a suitable window is found he then pastes a sentence on the empty shopping window. Oddly enough the business opportunities a vacant shopping space offer work beautifully with the empty promises of loads of money in your email inbox.

So far ten cities, each city a series of 5: Rotterdam, New York, San Francisco, Praag, Dresden, Weymouth, Londen, Brussel, Berlijn, Amsterdam.
